A Former Citizen of James City.

Mrs. E. M. Ware, of Toano, received a telegram Thursday, bringing the sad intelligence of the sudden death of her brother, Dr. Robt. Hayne Bush, of Huntsville, Texas.

Dr. Bush was born in James City county, near Toano, Dec. 23, 1833, and was a son of the late Col. Wm. Bush, he was educated at William and Mary, studied medicine and graduated at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. At the breaking out of the war between the States he joined the James City Cavalry as a private, and it was not long before he was appointed surgeon of the Army of Northern Virginia, in which capacity he served with distinction until the close of the war. After the war Dr. Bush settled in Huntsville, Texas, where he enjoyed an extensive and lucrative practice up to the time of his time.

On Nov. 22, 1872, he was married to Miss Juliette Hamilton, who, with six grown daughters, survives him. For many years Dr. Bush has been surgeon of the Texas State Penitentiary. It was in the discharge of his duty that he was stricken ill and died in a few hours. His many old friends here remember him with pleasure, and are pained to hear of his death.
